Mount Vernon, AL. 36560

Ms. Steiner,

The Mobile County Commission is pleased to inform you that the Down Payment Assistance Program (DPA) is currently active and funds are available to provide financial assistance (up to $10,000.00) to qualified homebuyers.

For many years, the Mobile County DPA Program has assisted several hundred individuals and families realize the dream of homeownership. I am sure, you are aware that there are many potential homebuyers in the community who deserve of the opportunity to become a homeowner however, it will take a collaborative effort of many entities from start to finish to make this happen.

The history of the MOWA Choctaw Housing Authority providing various forms of decent, safe and sanitary housing to citizens in the community is well documented. The Mobile County DPA Program could be a valuable tool for first-time homebuyers or for homebuyers transitioning from subsidized housing to homeownership by providing financial assistance to potential homeowners who meet the requirements of the program.

Enclosed with this correspondence is a handout with additional information about to the program. Please feel free to make copies to distribute to your clients and display in your offices.

If you would like further information about the DPA program, please use the information below to contact me.

Sincerely,
